Having expressed gratitude for the warm reception, Mr. M. Baldi, expressed its satisfaction with working in Azerbaijan as an ambassador. Noting the high level collaboration existing between Azerbaijan and Italy, the ambassador touched issues relating to the development of educational relations between two countries.

Education Minister, Misir Mardanov, wished the ambassador success in his new job. Having noted works carried out in the direction of broadening relations between Azerbaijan and Italy in the last years, the Minister underlined that cooperation in the education field organized more fruitfully.

The Minister also stressed that in the framework of the State Program on education of Azerbaijani youth in the foreign countries in 2007-2015, 4 Azerbaijani students are studying in Italy. Having noted Italy is being one of the ancient and big countries of Europe, Misir Mardanov, made suggestions on creating relations in the field of craft and art education. The Minister suggested realizing Twin schools project between educational institutions of two countries, as well as teaching Italian as a foreign language in the number of schools. He hoped that during the new ambassador's activity will be made some important steps in order to strengthen educational relations.

Bilateral relations between Azerbaijan and Italy, the Azerbaijan education delegation's trip to Italy in autumn this year, as well as Azerbaijani students' study in this country, and other issues had been discussed at the meeting.
