Within the framework of the 21st Education World Forum in London, UK, Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with the Minister of Education, Science and Youth of Georgia Alexander Tsuladze.

The current state and prospects for the development of cooperation in the field of general and higher education between the two countries were discussed during the meeting.