Having expressed his pleasure from seeing the guest at the Ministry of Education, Mr. Misir Mardanov noted the relationship between Azerbaijan and Jordan has been developing over recent years and the warm relationship between heads of both countries has had a positive impact on the cooperation in all fields. The Minister stressed the interest of Azerbaijan in deepening educational ties with Jordan and highly praised the Jordan special relationship with Azerbaijan.

Noting there are 22 students from Jordan currently studying at universities of Azerbaijan, the Minister stressed the importance of deepening relationship in the field of student exchange as well. According to him, during his visit to Jordan he became acquainted with universities and educational conditions of this country. He underlined the possibility of sending Azeri students to universities of Jordan and stressed the importance to give preference to ICT, medicine and other fields.

Deputy Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan Mustafa Al Adwan thanked the Minister for the warm reception. Noting the relationship between two countries has been developed in all fields; the guest gave information on achievements of the education system of Jordon and expressed their interest in cooperating in the fields of student and teacher exchange, as well as science. According to Mr. Adwan, his country attaches great importance to bilateral relations with Azerbaijan and from this viewpoint the relationship in the educational field is a priority.

Education Minister stressed the importance of being familiar with the practice in the use of ICT at secondary schools of Jordan. Moreover, he noted the need to implement the School Twinning project between two countries and deepen the relationship in the higher education field. He also expressed his belief that the joint workshops and conferences will contribute to deepen the bilateral relations and suggested to sign a relevant agreement between two countries on the development of educational ties of Azerbaijan and Jordan.

At the meeting, the sides exchanged views on issues of common interest.

The meeting was attended by Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan to Azerbaijan, Adel Mohammad Adaileh.