Speaking at the opening of the event jointly organized with the Azerbaijan National Academy of Sciences (ANAS) and Ministry of Education the President of ANAS Mahmud Karimov noted that Abbas Zamanov has made commendable contributions to the formation and development of national literature.

Noting that Abbas Zamanov was one of the literary celebrities of the Azerbaijani science, Education Minister Misir Mardanov underlined his great contribution to nurturing high qualified personnel in the ideology of Azerbaijanism. According to the Minister the contributions of Abbas Zamanov to the development of science, literature and culture of Azerbaijan is undeniable. Moreover, the Minister spoke about the activity of Abbas Zamanov at Baku State University, his credibility among faculty members and students.

Next, there were demonstrated a film dedicated to the 100th anniversary of Abbas Zamanov.

Doctor of Philological Sciences Iman Jafarov, Doctor of Philological Sciences Akif Azalp, Chief of the National Archive Department of Azerbaijan Atakhan Pashayev, Professor Panah Khalilov, correspondent member of ANAS Veli Aliyev, correspondent member of ANAS, MP Nizami Jafarov have talked on their memories about the famous scientist Abbas Zamanov noting his contributions as a scholar and a man to his country and people.

Speaking at the end, the granddaughter of Professor Abbas Zamanov Gulgun Rzayeva thanked President Ilham Aliyev for signing an executive order on marking the 100th anniversary of her grandfather.