On January 13, Deputy Minister of Science and Education Hasan Hasanli took part in the 6th meeting of the Intergovernmental Commission on Economic Cooperation between Azerbaijan and Italy in Baku.

Speaking at the meeting, the deputy minister informed participants about the current state of cooperation between the two countries in the field of science and education. In his speech, the Deputy Minister also spoke about the activities of the Italian-Azerbaijani University, expanding mutual exchange of experience, supporting joint educational projects, as well as the work being done to deepen academic ties between general education and higher education institutions.

The commission meeting also discussed the current state of cooperation and potential opportunities for cooperation between the two countries in the areas of trade and economics, industry, energy, transport, information and communication technologies, healthcare, and culture.

In conclusion, a protocol was signed summarizing the results of the meeting.