Deputy Minister of Science and Education Hasan Hasanli met with Israeli Minister of Education Yoav Kisch.

During the meeting, the parties exchanged views on current cooperation and prospects for development of cooperation between the two countries in the areas of general education, STEAM education, and higher education.