The event was attended by Deputy Education Minister Gulu Novruzov, MPs Kamila Aliyeva, Jeyhun Osmanli, Sadaqat Valiyeva, Jala Aliyeva, director of Department for Education and Extra – School Institutions Agababa Ibrahimov, deputy director of Baku city Education Department Mammad Bayramov, heads of circles, etc.

The competition, which was conducted in accordance with the relevant order of the Ministry of Education, is one of a series of events held with regard to the 20th anniversary of restoration of the independence of Azerbaijan Republic. The main goal of the competition is to promote the creativity potential of talented children and youth, increase the interest of pupils in creativity circles, and organize exchanges of experience among centers for children's creativity. The competition was held in two stages: district (city) and Republican stages.

Speaking at the opening of the event, Deputy Education Minister Gulu Novruzov underlined the special role of extra-school education in the life and intellectual development of pupils. He highly praised an active participation of pupils in the competition and a great interest of pupils from districts in the centers for creativity.

According to G. Novruzov, about 400 handcrafts were submitted to the Republican stage of the competition and 60 winners were determined by Jury. He has congratulated the winners and wished them every success for the future.

Other speakers have talked about the importance of competition and the role of these kinds of events in all-round development of pupils.

The winners of the first, second and third places of the competition were awarded with diplomas and prizes of the Ministry of Education.
