Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with a delegation of Power China.

The meeting was attended by Tan Xiaofeng, the company's vice president for Eurasia, as well as executives from the company's Azerbaijan office.

During the meeting, Power China made a presentation on potential areas of cooperation. Afterwards, the parties had a broad exchange of views and discussed the prospects for future cooperation.