On May 18, during the World Education Forum held in London, Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with Dejan Vuk Stanković, Minister of Education of the Republic of Serbia.

During the meeting, the parties discussed current cooperation and prospects for further development in the field of education between the two countries.