On 24 September,the Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev met with Minister of Culture and Innovation of the Republic of Hungary Balázs Hankó, who is on a visit to the Republic of Azerbaijan.

During the meeting, the current state of cooperation and prospects for development in the fields of science and education between the two countries were discussed.