In Ganja city, secondary school named after Nariman Narimanov, no 25 there have been substantial renovations and reconstructions. Additional educational branch for 500 pupils has been constructed for elementary classes at secondary school no.16. A new building has been constructed for Ganja city Creative Centre for Children, relevant environment has been provide for efficient organization of children's leisure time and development of their creative capacity.

At the opening the Minister of Education Mikayil Jabbarov, Minister of Youth and Sports Azad Rahimov, mayor of Ganja city executive authority Elmar Valiyev, parliament members Asaf Hajiyev, Khanlar Fatiyev, Musa Guliyev, education staff, pupils and representatives of city community.

Taking part in the opening ceremonies the Minister of Education Mikayil Jabbarov mentioned the condition provided at the establishments would embrace the students with a new academic environment and this would effectively influence to the results of schools. The Minister stated his hope in positive role of the newly built Creative Centre for Children from the standpoint of including them in extra-curricular establishments along with academic achievements.

Other guests taking part in the events wished successes to pedagogical staff and pupils of education establishments.

Afterwards the guests cut the red ribbon expressing the openings and acquainted with the condition provided at schools.