A delegation led by Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev is on a visit to the United Arab Emirates. The purpose of the visit is to participate in the World Governments Summit in Dubai at the invitation of Abdulrahman Al Awar, Minister of Human Resources and Emiratisation and Acting Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research of the UAE.

The 2026 World Governments Summit, themed “Shaping the Governments of the Future,” was attended by more than 6,000 high-level officials, including ministers around the world, over 400 distinguished speakers, and representatives from more than 80 international organizations.

As part of the summit, Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev took part in a ministerial panel on “The Future of Labor” organized by the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research of the United Arab Emirates. During the panel discussion, participants discussed topical issues related to the transformation of the labor market, the impact of science and technology on the business world, and the exchange of innovative approaches and best international practices.
