On March 17, the Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev has met with Amy Carlon, the U.S. Chargé d'Affaires in the Republic of Azerbaijan.

During the meeting, participants discussed the current state of cooperation and prospects for future development of cooperation in the fields of science and education.