A delegation led by Minister of Science and Education Emin Amrullayev visited Queen's Belfast University in Northern Ireland.

During the visit, a meeting was held with university officials. The meeting focused on prospects for cooperation in higher education, the development of inter-university ties, and opportunities for scientific research and academic exchange.

The delegation also toured the university campus, classrooms, and research centers. They were briefed on the university’s modern educational approaches and innovative infrastructure.