The meeting was devoted to the accreditation results of School no.164 of Baku, School-lyceum no.2 of Guba, School-lyceum no.4 of Lankaran and School-lyceum no.6 of Lankaran.

Speaking at the opening of the meeting Education Minister Misir Mardanov stressed that the accreditation of secondary schools is held for the first time. According to him, measures taken in this direction are very important in terms of improving education quality.

Chair of Accreditation Commission on School no.164 of Baku Bahram Shiriyev gave information about the results of accreditation held at school. He talked about the school activity, organization of teaching process, its teaching staff and students, admission of graduates to universities, and etc.

Chair of Accreditation Commission on school-lyceum no.2 of Guba Nizami Azizov talked about the activity of lyceum, teaching staff, its material and technical base highlighting the compliance of school's activity with its status.

Chair of Accreditation Commission on school-lyceum no.4 of Lankaran Gurban Hasanov gave information about the activity of the school, students knowledge level, material and technical supply of the school and results of accreditation.

Chair of Accreditation Commission on school-lyceum no.6 of Lankaran Nizami Novruzov talked about the organization of teaching process, material-technical base of the school, the content of education, university admission figures for students and voiced recommendations offered by the Commission.

Next, questions taken from the meeting attendees were answered, and made some suggestions and recommendations.

Education Minister shared his views regarding the accreditation of secondary schools and gave his recommendations.

At the end, the activity of school no.164 of Baku, school-lyceum no.4 of Lankaran and school-lyceum no.6 of Lankaran was assessed as "good", the activity of school-lyceum no.2 of Guba "satisfactory" and made a decision on their accreditation.