The main objective of lessons to be taught during February – May 2014 is to provide pupils with more complete and comprehensive information regarding history of modern Azerbaijan. These lessons being significant from standpoint of improving training quality in an appropriate direction and revealing pupils' potential capabilities, serve also the pupils' formation as a healthy convinced, patriot personality with modern worldview and preparation for independent life as a mature citizen.

Teachers to teach the lessons at Heydar Aliyev centers, titles and schedules of lessons have been determined beforehand. Also relevant thesis and recommendations have been prepared to help teachers.
