

---

On November 27, The Minister of Education, Jeyhun Bayramov, met with the Asian Development Bank representatives.

At the meeting, the issues related to the project envisaged in the framework of the public-private partnership, as well as the prospects for further development of the project has been discussed.