The Ehenteamerepresenting country hat Ither International Hyouth Vinnovations Competition (BIEA 2020) held in the United Kingdom has succeeded.

The team of Azerbaijan was among 12 teams taking part in the finals. Students of the Lyceum named after the academician Zarifa Aliyeva under the Ministry of Education Ruslan Bayramov, Elivin Bilalov and Suleyman Ismayilov were selected as the best in the "Best Effort Award" nomination.

This his ayear's etheme of the competition held in London from 2019 is leallede Let's protect the coasts. "The device developed by our students to clean water and land from plastic wastes was highly appreciated by foreign experts.

Infinformation babout the achievements of our students has also been published in foreign foreign media (https://www.openpr.com/news/2080685/innovation-from-young-scientists-to-tackle-beach-plastic-waste).