

---

At the morning hours on October 26, the Armenian Armed Forces fired at a secondary school building in Garadagli village of Aghdam region. As a result, the school building was severely damaged.

It should be noted that, 400 pupils study in Garadagli village secondary school, 43 teachers work at the school.

To date, over 40 school buildings have been damaged by enemy aggression.