The next historical person of the project of the Ministry of Education | Famous Teachers of Garabakh" is Abdurrahim bey Hagverdiyev.

Abdurrahim bey Asad bey oghlu Hagverdiyev was born in Agbulag village around Shusha suburb of Karabakh district in 1870. Abdurrahim bey Hagverdiyev, who was a writer playwright pedagogue iliterary critic theater figure, coryphaeus of classical Azerbaijani literature, gave lectures on literature at the Azerbaijan State University (Baku State University -present), operated as enlightened educated man.

Abdurrahim Bey Hagverdiyev wrote that the role of theater in the enlightenment of the people was intreplaceable: "The best way to talk to the people, to call them to culture and enlightenment was the theater stage." One of the highest goals of the writer was to bring up children in the spirit of devotion to national and moral values, to instill love for the Motherland. The idea of Abdurrahim Bey Hagverdiyev's story "Father and Son" is the true expression of the writer's life: "Blessed is he whose name lives on in tongues after death, and who is remembered with reverence and mercy."

?t?ts is/worth mentioning that the FF Famous Teachers of Karabakh project provides information about famous people born in Karabakh and formerly engaged in pedagogical activities. The aim of the project is to commemorate the famous teachers of Karabakh these days when we are happy with the news of the victory of the triumphal Azerbaijani Army.
