The basic purpose of the knowledge competition, which leading among pupils of Baku within the limits of execution of problems implied by “Complex Actions Plan on improvement of ecological conditions in Azerbaijan Republic in 2006-2010,” is an expansion of ecological educational works at schools, developing pupils interest in care and love for the environment and natural resources, help to instil ecological culture in young people and responsible attitude to preservation of the environment.

The Brain Ring was organised by the Education Ministry, the Republican Centre of Ecological Training and Experience, Baku city Education Department, the State Oil Company and Upbringing Work Centre No 46. The competition is carried on between schools, No.58. (Khazar), 194 (Gunesh), 64 (Heyejan), 269 (Sema) and the Azerbaijan Child-to-Child Peace Network, “Khari Bulbul”.

Elnur Alizadeh, the lead expert of the Department of rearing and affairs with extra school of the Education Ministry, and Rovshan Aliyev, the lead adviser of out of school education of Baku city Education Department, Lala Dadashova, the assistant manager of a social and political sector of the Department of Ecology of SOCAR, employees of the Republican Centre of Ecological Training and Experience, teachers and parents took part at the event.

Ali Shukurov, director of the Republican Centre of Ecological Training and Experience has welcomed visitors and wished success to pupils at knowledge competition,

The command of “Khazar”, secondary school No.58, has gained highest points at the semi-final and won the first place, «Gunesh», secondary school No.194, the second, and “Sema”, secondary school No.269, the third.

At the end of competition diplomas and valuable prizes are handed over to winners.