On 29 March the meeting took place in the Ministry of Education. Education Minister, Misir Mardanov in its speech has mentioned some issues faced by the Ministry. At first, the Minister has noted the importance of strengthening an activity of the Hotline service of the Ministry, ensuring of efficiency of carried out works, and also has raised the importance of improving service's work.

Afterwards, the Minister has been interested in the condition of preparation works for board meetings, which planning to within the next few days. It has been noted that in these meetings will be discussed issues of foreign students' education in Azerbaijan, the current conditions of methodical service in the country and its improvement, results of test examinations leading in IX-XI classes and also issues relating to the final examination.

The Minister also has mentioned issues relating to "The best secondary school of the year" and "The best teacher of the year" competitions, rationalization of schools, vocational education, textbooks and other spheres, and has given the concrete tasks about works, which realizing in the different direction.