In the press conference, which took place in the Education System Informatization Department under the Education Ministry, the head of the department, Samir Mammadov, has noted that 2010 has been announced by the Ministry as a "Year of ICT in education", and this is one of the activities provided by the contest. According to him the contest is holding under the State program on Informatization of Education System in 2008-2012, and supported by "Microsoft Azerbaijan", "Education for the future" program of the Intel Cooperation, as well as organizations of AZEDUNET, Ultra, HP, and Madad.

The member of Organization Committee, head of Azerbaijan Internet Forum, Osman Gunduz, represented the contest official website. He has emphasized that the contest information will be posted on the official website of www.musabiqe.edu.az.

It is informed that the contest is organized in two directions - "Internet technologies in education" and "E-education resources in the modern school." The main goal of the contest is to develop the use of electronic educational resources and internet technologies in the educational process, public awareness in this field, reveal new forms of internet use for the educational purposes, as well as encouragement to teachers, who actively using information technologies in the study. Winners in each 5 nomination will be handed over laptop, netbooks and other special prizes.