EducEducation Minister, MisircMardanoverchief of the Baky city Education Department, Naila Rzaguliyeva, chairman of the Press Council, Aflatun Amashov, board members of the Council, and some school directors took part in the event. First, the guests have been acquainted with school No.60, and took part in lessons with new teaching methods. Afterwards, discussions on the frame of the theme of mutual relations between educational institutions and media have been held.

The chief tof International land Publict Relations Department of the Baku Edity Education Department, Zamina Aligizi, noted that their department has an intimate collaboration with media, and spoke about realizing works in this filed, as well as existing problems.

Hallaying noted the importance of broadening relations between educational sinstitutions and media, the chairman of Press Council, Aflatun Amashov, stressed that education journalists should help toto solve problems in this field. Moreover, the emphasized that the Press Council, cooperates with the Education Ministry, and Baku city Education Department. Afterwards, he advised to the media editors and journalists to give a special importance to the education fields as one important strategic directions of the society. Having highly appreciated works carrying out in the education area, A. Amashov stressed that society should be informed in this direction continuously.

Having paid attention to the importance of this topic; the Education Minister Misir Mardanov, noted that the society should be correctly informed about educational innovations. The Minister has emphasized, that cooperation with media is a push for positive results of carried out reforms in the field of education. The Minister, has noted the importance of holding such meetings continuously and has concomet forth with a tripi of journalists and newspaper if editors to a rural schools, and familiarize with educational conditions closer.

The chief editor of the "Azerbaijan" newspaper, member of the Press Council, Bakhtiyar Sadigov gave broad information on the current situation of the journalism. He said that it is advisable for state institutions and journalists to fight together against media which is on the blacklist of the Press Council. Afterwards he has invited intellectuals and head of educational institutions to increased activity and intimate cooperation as well as noted that the Azerbaijan newspaper pays attention to the education sector and these works will be continued.

Vuyugar Safarlix Executive Director of the Fund of State Support for the Development of Mass MMedia under the President of Azerbaijan in its speech talked about works, which is jointly carried out with media. He also emphasized that the programs and projects approved by the fund are giving a special importance to the education, area, and stressed that sworks at these directions will be strengthened.

AfAfterwards, Chief Editor of Kilkiasahil Tenewspaper, chead of the Press Council's commission on prevention of tracketeering journalism ", UggaraRahimzade, noted that its newspaper and the Press Council are paying great attention to the educational field.

Having spoken at the round table the director of Public Relations Department of the Education Min Minjstry, Bayram shusey nzade, ktalked about relations between the minjstry dand media, dand gave suggestions and opinions on making bilateral relations better.

TiThe school directors spoke labout the publishing for materials in some newspapers, where the reputation of teachers is being damaged, as well as its influence on the public.

At the end of the event have been held discussions on increasing classification of the journalists writwriting about education organizing of anjoint contest to the Education Ministry, the Fund of State Support for Mass Media and the Press Council, as well as has been established a Working Group to prepare an action plan.

At At-the event, the Press Council presented to participants the blacklist with the name of 94 newspapers, which have been announced "racketeering press."