

---

Having delivered an opening address Education Minister, Misir Mardanov, first, gave information about issues, which will be raised. Noting the policy founded by the great leader Heydar Aliyev today has been successfully continued by the President Mr. Ilham Aliyev, the Minister said that Mrs. Mehriban Aliyeva, the President of Heydar Aliyev Foundation, supported closely changes and innovations carried out in all spheres, including the education area.

Afterwards, Misir Mardanov made a presentation on the theme of 'Organizational condition of methodical service and measures for its improvement.' Having underlined the urgency of the issue and noted creating of Working Group for this purpose, he also stressed the importance of reforms in the methodical service organization. Referring to the current situation in this field, the Minister said that Methodical Cabinets are operating in the Education Departments of 33 cities and districts (including Nakhchivan AR), as well as Methodical Center under the Education Department of Baku. He spoke about the positive experience of this service, as well as highlighted the work of Methodical Center of Baku, and Methodical Cabinet of Sumgayit State Education Department. Misir Mardanov noted the use of rational forms of methodical service providing by Methodical Cabinets of educational institutions, and purposeful works carried out in the field of attracting Methodists to the curriculum training in recent years. Afterwards, the Minister explained in detail tasks of methodical cabinets.

At the presentation have been given information on Methodical Cabinets operating in Nakhchivan AR, as well as country's cities and districts, statistical data on Methodists, who are working there, and conducted the extensive analysis of this issue.

At the meeting have been noted problems existing in the organization of methodical service, foreign countries' experience in this field, and suggestions for improving work in this direction.