Having warmly welcomed the guest, Misir Mardanov, expressed gratitude at seeing him again in the Education Ministry. He talked about relations existing between France and Azerbaijan, have touched some issues in the direction of the development of relationships, and about teaching French language in schools is Misic Mardanov emphasized willingness to give a necessary support to other important projects in the framework of existing relations.

Gabriel Keller, the ambassador of extraordinary and plenipotentiary of France to Azerbaijan, has that thanked the Minister for the warmereceptione The ambassador talked about the development of relations between two countries during the last years, and noted the special place of education in these relations. Having underlined some issues relating to the founding of Azerbaijan-France School, the guest talked about the existence of such school in Georgia which is functioning under the name of French school of Caucasus." Gabriel Keller wished the school not being the unique, and noted questions relating to that issue.

Having agreed and supported the guest thoughts, the Minister said that Azerbajjan needs such such old Misir Mardanov talked about signing the appropriate document, and expressed confidence in making mutual relations in the education field stronger.

At the meeting have been made suggestions on solving some problems faced by Azeri students' studying in French universities; as well as creating a Working Group.