

---

Having warmly welcomed the guests the Minister noted the development of current relations existing between Azerbaijan and Norway, especially collaboration in the education field in the last years. He has stressed the importance of implementation of different projects in terms of development collaboration.

The ambassador, Jon Ramberg, first, thanked the Minister for the warm reception. Having noted the high level of educational relations between two countries, he touched cooperation between universities. The ambassador talked about the importance of the project carried out between Azerbaijan University of Languages and Oslo University, and thanked the Minister for its support.

Afterwards, the ambassador talked about the study of Azeri students in Norway's universities in the framework of "State Program on education of young people of Azerbaijan abroad in 2007-2015," implementation of International School of the Economics (ISET) programme in Azerbaijan, development of relations between Norwegian University of Life Sciences and Azerbaijan State Agrarian University, as well as carrying out new projects.

Education Minister laid stress on the implementing project between Azerbaijan University of Languages and Oslo University, and made suggestions on discussion issues, as well as expressed its readiness to render the necessary support.

Afterwards, the Deputy Director of Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Norway, Bard Svendsen, and Professor of Oslo University, Vibeke Roggen expressed their thoughts about realizing projects, and other issues.

Rector of Azerbaijan University of Languages, Samad Seyidov took part in the event as well.