

---

Education Minister, Misir Mardanov, delivered an opening address and noted the delegation visited Brasil in order to learn the education system of the mentioned country and implementing reforms.

The report presentation has been delivered by the Deputy Minister, Isgandar Isgandarov. He gave broad information on the education trip from April 10-16, and talked about the structure of educational system in Brazil and education management rules. Having underlined the state universities in Brazil having more authority, the Deputy Minister, stressed that curriculum reforms in this country have been applying since 2006. Noting the ratio of universities and students between Azerbaijan and Brazil, Mr. Isgandarov gave information on the textbook policy, researches in the field of education management, programs' assessment, fund allocation to the education from budget, and other relative issues.