

---

Having expressed the satisfaction of seeing the guest at the Ministry of Education, Mir Mardanov gave information on the situation increasing during the last days in the result of the water increase in the Kura River and implemented measures to solve the problems. Afterwards, the Minister talked about works carrying out in the education field, noted that in the three selected schools of Azerbaijan teaching Japanese language as a foreign language. He also talked about Azeri students study in the famous universities of Japan and the development of cooperation in the vocational education area.

Having informed the guest on works carrying out in the framework of "State program on the education of Azerbaijan youth in abroad for the year of 2007-2015," approved by the President, the Minister, noted the importance of organization educational trips of the Ministry staff, teachers and experts working in the vocational education field to Japan.

Having thanked the Minister for the warm reception the Ambassador Masamitsu Oki, expressed his concern about the damage caused by floods in recent days, and also positively welcomed the capture problem under control on time. He highly appreciated teaching Japanese in secondary schools as a foreign language. The ambassador also noted its satisfaction with visits teachers and pupils of these schools, the development of collaboration in the vocational education field, and expressed readiness to support the study of Azeri youth at Japan's universities.

The parties expressed their confidence that the cooperation in the field of education will be strengthening, as well as exchanged views on other issues.