Parents, teachers, finfluential iscientists and ischolars lattended the conference on the role of society, public and media to restore the authority of teachers.

Hallaying opened the event the Executive Director of the Azerbaijan National Parent/Teacher Association Tarana Sharifova talked about the professional teachers who guides a health, economy, culticultureg im general dall developing spheres; and play ian important role in the formation of ryoung generation, as well as their activity. She emphasized the care provided to them by the state. T. Sharifov noted that unlike previous years the authority of teachers has decreased slightly, and that organization, led led by their, do connection with this carried tout acsocial survey among 345 parents and teachers of secondary schools of Baku and regions.

The results of survey were presented to the participants through a slide at the press conference and conducted the appropriate analysis. Afterwards, were announced that psychologists carried out the sourcey among 300 pupils of 9-11 grades to identify the desire to become a teacher and conducted it results as well. T. Sharifova noted the importance of raising and rebuilding the teacher 'authority in the society. She stressed the need to put forward relevant proposals, and noted that they will be sent to the apappropriate organizations. Correspondent members of ANAS Vagif Abbasov. Sudeyif Imamverdiyev, head head to fulnternational Educational Complex Sara Xanlarova; tdirector of school. No 1177 Haqiqa Mammadova and others in their speeches talked about reasons of reducing the teacher' authority in the country, expressed their views and ideas for improving it.