

---

The purpose of the visit is to learn the experience of Scotland in the formation and operation of the vocational education and training system. During the visit, meetings will be held in the Quality Department of Scotland, parliament and in the vocational colleges of this country.