

---

In 2007 this figure consisted of 116812 pupils, in 2008 -117535, and in the last year 113186. In 2007, 4524 pupils finished the 12th grade of secondary schools, in 2008 -1311, and in 2009 -7637. However, this year their number is 720 people.

In the current year, about 23 000 pupils of 324 schools of Baku will finish the 11th grade, and nearly 37 000 pupils will finish the 9th grade.

In the 2009/10 academic year, the number of first grade pupils was 118581 people. In 2007 this figure was 117921 people, and in 2008 -119600. It is predicted that in the 2010/11 academic year, 123844 pupils will be enrolled to the first grade of secondary schools.

95 195 145 students are studying (88023 for the Bachelor's and 27122 for Master's degrees) at universities under submission of the Ministry of Education.

22814 students are studying (20062 for the Bachelor's and 2752 for the Master's degrees) in the last courses of universities.

21821878 students are studying at private universities: 21260 for the Bachelor's, 618 for the Master's degrees, 96297 students of the last courses are studying for the Bachelor's, 9269 for the Master's degree.