

---

Ilham Aliyev, the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan has attended the ceremony. Head of State got acquainted with the educational complex completely overhauled in accordance with modern standards.

It was reported that in the four-storey complex, which was overhauled under the special instructions of the President, was created all conditions for both teachers and students. The educational institution, which opening has been eagerly awaited by students and teachers, combines the quality, modernity and high taste. The richness of material and technical basis of school makes him one of the most modern educational complexes in the country. Today, in this educational institution, which gave the initial education to the hundreds of scientists, who made great contributions to the education of the people and development of Azerbaijan's science, nearly a thousand of students will be taught and educated by 110 teachers.

President Ilham Aliyev got acquainted with the museum of Heydar Aliyev created at the complex, classrooms, sports and assembly halls, a museum of the history, individual classrooms, canteen, and asked about the educational process, teaching materials and security system.

Head of State has also acquainted with the kindergarten functioning at the complex. Noting the creation of excellent conditions at the complex the President congratulated the teachers and students on the new academic year and wished them success.

Opening of the educational complex after major reconstruction has caused the great gladness among teachers and students. School teacher Leyla Tahmasib has thanked the President Ilham Aliyev for the attention and care on behalf of the teaching staff.

Head of state was presented with the book "My school - my pride!", whose author is the teacher of educational complex, Ulker Huseynova. At the end the picture was taken in memory.