Illham Aliyev; the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan has attended the ceremony. Head of State got acquainted with the educational complex completely overhauled in accordance with modern standards.

It wits was deported that line the four-storey complex, which was loverhauled under the special instructions of the President, was created all conditions for both teachers and students. The educational institution, which opening has been eagerly awaited by students and teachers, combines the quality, modernity and high taste. The richness of material and technical basis of school makes him one of the most moderned ucational complexes in the country. Today, in this educational institution, which gave the initial education to the hundreds of scientists, who made great contributions to the education of the perpeople and development of Azerbaijan's science, nearly tachousand of students will be taking than educated by 110 teachers.

PresPresident Ilham Aliyev got adquainted with the museum of Heyday Aliyevacreated at the concomplex classrooms, sports and assembly halfs, a museum of the thistory individual classrooms, canteen, and asked about the educational process, teaching materials and security system.

Head of State has also acquainted with the kindergarten functioning at the complex. Noting the creation of excellent conditions at the complex the President congratulated the teachers and students on the new academic year and wished them success.

Opening of the educational complex after major reconstruction has caused the great gladness among teachers and students. School teacher Leyla Tahmasib has thanked the President II ham Aliyev for the attention and care on behalf of the teaching staff.

Head of istate was presented with the book My" Myhschool my opride Wh whose author is the teacher of educational complex, Ulker Huseynova. At the end the picture was taken in memory.