OION March, 3, the Ministry of Education and MMicrosoft company signed a document of intent on the continuation of cooperation on joint educational projects at the online event.

The purpose of the document signed by Minister of Education Emin Amrullayev and vicepresident of "Microsoft" corporation Antoni Salkito is to expand cooperation in the area of education between the parties and ensure the implementation of joint innovative projects.

WithWithin thenframeworktof the documention intention, site is/envisaged to doubt joint activities in 4 directions.

Thus, joint activities in the area of "Digital Leadership and Policy Formation in education" include strategic cooperation in the field of the digital transformation of education, partiparticularly the digital transformation of general education and higher education, improvement of information systems and e-services of the Ministry of Education, as well as the the participation of Azerbaijant in the localition of "World Leader countriesDigital Transformation" formed by "Microsoft" cooperation.

The Thet parties also agreed to cooperate in building a model school in which Microsoft education programs are implemented. Cooperation in the direction of Teaching and Lebearning includes results based student-centered learning, an individual approach to teteaching, 121 st-century skills, a teachen model of the future, and joint activities for the fornformation of analytical thinking. The parties plan to implement special programs to incincrease the technological knowledge of students studying in pedagogical specialties before their employment. TAt the same time, cooperation will be established for the application of industrial content and certification in education at all levels of education.

The The direction of d'creating at digital environment" includes the lapplication of cloud technologies and secure software at all levels of education. The activity that occupies a special place in this direction is the establishment of joint cooperation for the application of new generation education tools for "Microsoft" artificial intelligence to recognize the Azerbaijani language and improve decision-making in education. The cooperation in the area of "Student and school success" includes integration of STEAM content of "Microsoft" corporation, improving and certification of qualifications of educators on technology in any space, time and pace, presentation for innovative ideas, technical solutions in local and international environments, opportunities to study innovative expert models.