

---

Secondary special education provides training of specialists with secondary special education in various specialties for different areas of activity based on general secondary education and full secondary education in accordance with the needs of society and the labor market.

