Secondary special education provides training of specialists with secondary special education in avarious special ties for idifferent rareas of cactivity abased on egeneral secondary education and full secondary education in accordance with the needs of society and the labor market.

