Additional education provides every citizen with the opportunity to receive uninterrupted education and is responsible for the development of human potential, improving the level of intellectual and vocational training of citizens, ensuring their adaptation to constantly changing and updated working conditions, and securing active and effective participation of older citizens in the country's social, economic, political, and cultural life.