

---

Speaking at the opening, Nigar Valiyeva gave information on the dictionary and noted comparative analysis of phraseological combinations in Azerbaijani, English, and Russian languages are important on several aspects. She highlighted that this analysis defines appropriateness of languages, as well as helps to conceive its semantic development correctly. It was noted that phraseological combinations in Azerbaijani, English and Russian languages and over 90 thousands of phraseological units were collected and used for the first time at the two-volume dictionary each one of which has 988 pages.

Deputy Education Minister, Irada Huseynova, began her speech at the event with the quote of great leader Heydar Aliyev: "The language immortalizes and develops the national and spiritual values of each nation" and noted that due to countless and intensive work of the national leader, in the recent years, Azerbaijani language is used at the influential international organizations and highly valued in international relations. Deputy Minister emphasized President Ilham Aliyev and his spouse, Mehriban Aliyeva pay a great attention to the development of our language, national traditions and spiritual values. Moreover, there are taking important steps toward to the protection of these values.

Noting the importance of this dictionary, I. Huseynova expressed confidence that it will make a great contribution to the Azerbaijan's linguistic science, and future generations will take maximum advantage of it. Deputy Minister thanked the author and everyone for the work that they put towards publishing the book.

Samad Seyidov, Rector of Azerbaijan University of Languages highlighted the importance of the book in its speech as well. He expressed his double delight for the fact that the dictionary was prepared by the professor of AUL. Moreover, he added that university will do its best to implement such projects in the future.

Scientists and intellectuals in their speech noted their positive opinions on the book prepared for the first time at the presentation ceremony.