

Extracurricular Education is a type of education that ensures the development of interests, inclinations and skills, intellectual levels, creative abilities, physical capabilities of children, adolescents and young people.

