

---

The fourth project report of the Committee was made at the meeting, and afterwards followed discussions around the theme.

Welcoming participants to the meeting, Deputy Education Minister, Isgandar Isgandarov, gave information about the purposes of the project and works done till today. Mr. Isgandarov noted measures implemented in Ismayilli region in order to create the Tourism Vocational Education Complex, and marked effective continuation of Committee's work in this area. Moreover, he stated its intention to resolve the forthcoming challenges as well. Having noted the organization of training trips by British Council within the project, the Deputy Minister highlighted works done on curriculums preparation, their application and assessment. Furthermore, he talked about measures implemented by the Ministry for successful activity of mentioned educational complex.

According to Namig Mammadov, Head of Vocational Education Department of the Ministry, labor market of Daglig Shirvan Economic Region has been investigated, and staff will be trained for demanding areas. Moreover, the project of Vocational Education and Training Reform Strategy and Pilot Implementation in a selected region in Azerbaijan is successfully implementing in collaboration with representatives of the Ministry of Education, Ministry of Economic Development, Ministry of Culture and Tourism, Ministry of Labor and Social Protection of Population, Executive Power of Ismayilli region, British Council, National Confederation of Entrepreneurs (Employers') Organizations of Azerbaijan Republic, Institute for Educational Problems, Scientific Research Institute for Economic Reforms and Tourism Institute.

The project director, Ann Custis, gave a presentation on purposes and duties of the project, as well as on achieved successes.

Mikolaj Bekasiak, EU Representative for Azerbaijan, Abdulla Mehrabov, Director of Institute for Educational Problems, Kamil Agamaliyev, Lead Advisor of the Vocational Education Department of Ministry, Sevgim Rahmanov, Chairman of the Merchants and Manufacturers Union, Rena Abdullayeva, representative of the Ministry of Labor and Social Protection of Population, in their speech noted the importance of the project in the proper organization of school's activity.