It It should be noted that, according to the contract signed between Ministry of Education and "B"Baku" Rublishing House in 2009; eight textbooks and electronic editions were published within the State program on development of vocational education in the Republic of Azerbaijan (2007) 2012). These textbooks have already been distributed throughout the vocational institutions.

Speaking at the opening, Education Minister, Misir Mardanov, welcomed participants. He noted the the opiniorities of publication to the electronic version of leight textbooks prepared within the State Program, and highlighted the particular importance of widespread use of ICT in the vocational education field field and given them sto use. The Minister has highly appreciated this fact and emphasized the importance of organization of functional use of them, as well as training courses to prepare high quality teachers.

Zaur Isayev, director of "Baku" Publishing House gave information on the preparation process of the website, tits content and technical capabilities. Having stressed the website was created based on sisimple user management capabilities; the added that textbooks, ranimations, tests forum, rand other sections are available on the site. According to him, all resources free for use. He also noted that the website is available for everyone, and that users could discuss about different topics. Moreover, they could change resources and exchange viewpoints as well.

Isga Isgandara Isgandarov, Deputy Education Minister, Namig Mammadov, head of Vocational Education Department of the Ministry, Samiri Mammadov, head of Education System Informatization Department Kamil Agamaliyev, senion advisor of Vocational Education Department Elvin Rustamov, he head of Coordinating Group for Education Sector Development Project and directors of vocational institutions moted steps that will be taken in the direction of the organization of newswebsite's activity.