

---

Addressing to the participants, the Minister congratulated them on Day of World Azerbaijanis' Solidarity and New Year. He highly estimated holding the Republican Subject Olympiad among students caused to the rise of interest of students in different subjects, and reveal of talented students.

The Minister noted that the comprehensive youth development has always been in the limelight of the government, and the policy founded by the nationwide leader Heydar Aliyev has successfully continued today by the President Ilham Aliyev. Moreover, he highlighted projects implemented in these fields by the President of Heydar Aliyev Foundation, Mehriban Aliyeva.

According to the Minister, talented pupils studied at schools have surrounded with special care. He noted good results achieved in the Subject Olympiads, and scientific conferences firmly held among students of universities. Furthermore, he informed that the final round of XV Republican Subject Olympiad was held on 11 subjects, including maths, physics, information science, geography, history of Azerbaijan, Azeri, English, German, French, and Russian languages at Azerbaijan Technical University.

Moreover, 458 students from 34 universities of Baku, Nakhchivan, Ganja, Lankaran, Sumgayit, and Mingachevir have participated in the final stage of Olympiad. Their works were estimated by the Organizing Committee and Jury, and winners were defined in a short period of time. The Minister added that 11 students have won the first, 22 the second and 33 the third places, as well as 40 students were awarded by the stimulating prize. The winners received diplomas, bonus and presents from the Ministry of Education and Independent Trade Union of Education Workers of the Azerbaijan Republic.

At the end, the Minister noted the importance of taking a special training course for the different Olympiads and scientific conferences, as well as thanked everyone for the organization of XV Republican Subject Olympiad.

Sattar Mehbaliyev, chairman of Independent Trade Union of Education Workers of the Azerbaijan Republic and Shamsaddin Hajiyev, rector of Azerbaijan State Economic University noted that pursuant to the purposeful state policy the success of Azerbaijani youth is being increased year after year, and all achievements were possible due to the fruitful activity of the Ministry of Education.

Afterwards, the winners have received diplomas, bonus and presents from the Ministry of Education and Independent Trade Union of Education Workers of the Azerbaijan Republic.