

---

The issues of extending the term of the license issued to the Khazar University, "Dunya" school subordinated to the mentioned university, and Baku Business University were discussed at the meeting.

Addressing to participants at the opening the Education Minister, Misir Mardanov, congratulated them on 31 December – the Day of World Azerbaijanis' Solidarity and New Year. After, he talked about the activity of Khazar University, "Dunya" school and Baku Business University. Having noted the notable successes achieved in all areas, including the education field in recent years, the Minister spoke about the need of the country for high qualified specialists. From this point of view, he underlined the achievements of universities, and emphasized that a number of graduates of these higher educational institutions are continued their study at famous universities of the world.

Habib Zarbaliyev, director of Accreditation Department of the Ministry, gave broad information on works done by the Expert Groups inspecting the activity of both universities.

Fiala Abdullayeva, Head of Expert Group of Khazar University, Afgan Abdullayev, Chairman of Expert Group of Baku Business University, Maharram Safarov, chief advisor of Accreditation Department and other members of Licensing Commission gave information about material and technical base, learning conditions, pedagogical staff, international relations and speciality training of universities.

Further, there were exchanged views on discussed issues.

At the end, there were decided to prolong the term of the license issued to the mentioned educational institutions.