

---

Aydin Ahmadov, Director of Department for general education on rural areas gave information on the main activities of the department, as well as allocation of staff duties. He also gave detailed information on preparation of legal documents within the Education Law of the Republic of Azerbaijan, organizational works, researches and studies within the sub- component of Continuation of a curriculum reform and Supporting Implementation Of Curriculum. Moreover, there was held the Republican qualifying round of talented pupils within the execution of State programme for development of creative potential of children (youth) with special talent (2006-2010). In addition, he underlined works done within the establishment of Small Academies for the V grades' pupils with special talent of schools defined in the eight regions of the country.

A. A. Ahmadov gave information on works implemented within the competitions of "The best general education school" and "The best teacher", essay contest devoted to the 87th anniversary of nation-wide leader Heydar Aliyev among VII-XI grades of general education schools and initial vocational institutions, and the 44th International Mendeleev Olympiad of pupils. He also informed on preparation of curriculums and programs, attending of conferences and seminars, queries received from citizens, as well as works will be done in 2011.

Namig Mammadov, Director of the Vocational department, gave information about works done by the department in last year, and allocation of duties and activities of the department. He talked about contingent of teachers and pupils, given the use the electronic vocational education website, and fields that alumni were provided with. According to him, for the first time, there were published electronic textbooks on nine copies for the last 20 years.

Noting the important works done within the studying of demand for specialities, and labour market, he paid attention to measures implemented in the framework of projects for Development of vocational schools, and Improvement of vocational training. He also noted the international practice in the relevant field have been studied, and informed on projects for "Staff preparation on green technology" and "Development of the initial vocational education in the agriculture."

Education Minister, Misir Mardanov, has charged both departments with future assignments, and to prepare the relevant documents.