

---

Education Minister, Misir Mardanov attended lessons of Khumar Ahmadbeyli, teacher of Lyceum, in 5 "A1" class devoted to the theme of "Traces allow to restore the past" and Ilhama Abdullayeva, in the 4 "A1" class, in the theme of "Dividing by 1-digit number" held by interdisciplinary curriculum.

The lessons of six teachers were attended at the seminar. After lessons the Minister visited some classes of the Lyceum and met with teachers and pupils. During the meeting, Zulfiyya Veysova, director of Lyceum, gave full information about teachers, classrooms, as well as their design. She underlined the parents took an active part in the creation of high level environmental training.

The Minister expressed satisfaction with what he had seen at Lyceum, and highly appreciated the favorable conditions created in different classes, as well as positive aspects that he had noticed in classes. Moreover, the Minister has underlined the importance of close relations between teachers and parents.

Further, there were held discussions on lessons. The Minister and other participants underlined the organization of lessons in the high level, demonstration by teachers a methodical mastery, active participation of pupils in lessons, and widespread use of the modern training methods in lessons.

Zulfiyya Veysova, Director of Baku European Lyceum, gave a presentation on the interdisciplinary learning program (ILP) and noted it has been successfully applied at the school for several years. She had answered to the number of questions of participants on the presentation. The manuals on ILP prepared by the Lyceum were handed over to participants.

Deputy Minister of Education, Isgandar Isgandarov, the heads of relevant departments of the Ministry, staff of some universities and director of a number of schools attended the seminar.