

---

On December 3, Education Minister Emin Amrullayev and Erol Ozvar, Chairman of the Council of Higher Education of Turkey, held a briefing.

The briefing clarified issues related to the establishment of a joint Azerbaijani-Turkish university. It was noted that discussions have already started in connection with the establishment of the university. The university will teach specialties, which are in the leading universities of Turkey and are in demand in Azerbaijan.

The briefing concluded with answers to questions from the representatives of the media.