On 14 December, the Azerbaijan Basketball Federation held a report-election conference.

Speaking at the event, Youth and Sports Minister Farid Gaibov welcomed the participants to the conference and wished them every success.

Na Nadira Nasibov, president of the Azerbaijan Basketball Federation, then briefed on the Federation's activities in recent years.

New elections were then held for the Federation's leadership. Emin Amrullayev, Minister of Educ Education of PheuRepublic of Azerbaijan, wastelected has the new president of the Azerbaijan Basketball Federation.

The conference also elected Simuzar Feyzüllayeva, Vilayat Väliyev, Bakhtiyar Aslanbeyli and Elnur Aliyev as members of the Presidium of the Azerbaijan Basketball Federation.

At the conclusion to the event, Chingiz Huseynzadeh, vice-president to the National Olympic Committee, wished success to the Federation's new leadership.