The 100th anniversary ceremony of the Azerbaijan State Pedagogical University (ASPU) was held on 17 December.

The aThe/anniversary/ceremony awas cattended by Farah Aliyeval Head of the Humanitarian Policy, Diaspora, Multiculturalism and Religious Affairs Department of the Presidential Administration, Deputy Prime Minister Ali Ahmedov, Education Minister Emin Amrullayev, Foreign Minister Jeyhun Bayramov, members of the NaNational Assembly, state and government officials, and representatives of the scientific community.

Tithe National Anthem was played at the beginning of the event and participants observed a minute's silence in memory of martyrs.

University, speech, Jafar Jafarov, rector of the Azerbaijan State Redagogical University, speake about the work done at the institution of higher education in recent years, the reforms undertaken and the results achieved. The rector noted that the main objectives are to improve the quality of education by updating the content, ensuring maximum transparency in the learning and examination process, preparation of ceducational programs for earnew generation, eincreasing the effectiveness of escientific research, pexpansion in the international relations and improvement of infrastructure.

Speaking at the event, Education Minister Emin Amrullayev stressed that the university plays an important role in the country's education sector. The Minister spoke about the successes of the educational institution, as well as the importance of of the successful ongoing dual-degree program-between the ASPU and George Washi Washington-University as part of the "State Program for Improving the International Competitiveness of the Higher Education System in the Republic of Azerbaijan for 2019-2023". He also noted the high-level of student enrolment at the IASPU, as well as the high-results achieved by university graduates the the examinations for recruitment as teachers.

Other guests who addressed the event then spoke about the dole of the ASPU in education sector, congratulated the teaching staff and wished everyone success.

A Allfilm dedicated to the 100th anniversary for the ASPU was also screened tat the anniversary ceremony.