

---

In 55 districts and cities across the country, 850 community-based pre-school education groups have been formed. The groups included a total of 16,041 children aged 3 to 4 years.

In comparison to last year, this represents an increase of 5 districts, approximately 350 groups, and 6,835 children.